

Realtors Urge City Change O'Donnell Golf Use

Ask Parking, Park, Auditorium On Site

By DON KLOTZBUECHER

The City of Palm Springs, represented by its governing body, the city council, had a bombshell dropped into its lap last night.

The progressive Real Estate Board, representing one of the most important industries in the city, called on council by official resolution to acquire the use of O'Donnell Golf Course for use as a parking area, to house a 5,000-seat auditorium, and for establishment of a park or botanical garden.

And the board, headed by President Theresa Press, did not stop there.

MEMBERS PRESENT at the regular general meeting at the American Legion hall overwhelmingly approved the entrance of a float in the Desert Circus Parade on March 30, and a campaign to enter a float in the Rose Bowl Parade Jan. 1, 1958.

In approving the resolution providing space for parking, a civic auditorium and a park area on the O'Donnell Golf Club, the board expressed its united progressive feeling for the welfare of Palm Springs as a whole, and the merchants and hotel owners in the downtown business district.

PRESENTED BY Graham Dexter, the resolution stresses the drastic need for immediate action, and relief, on the parking problem.

In referring to the necessity for an auditorium, Dexter said, "We have ruled out every industry but one from Palm Springs—the tourist industry. There is only one way to help our business and professional people survive the dry periods that occur in this type of industry, and that is provide, immediately, a place to house national conventions."

UNDER THE PROPOSED plan, the O'Donnell Golf Club would be divided in the following manner: The south area nearest the business district for parking; the center area for the civic auditorium, and the northern area for a park or botanical garden "for the benefit of the visitor and the publicity that will accrue thereby."

In the preface to its resolution calling on city bodies to give the parking problem immediate consideration, and asking cooperation of all other business, professional, social, service and civic organizations, the board pointed out the highway construction current and proposed, which will bring tourists and visitors here quicker, but added that the number of people who come here depends on the parking facilities available.

THE ROSE BOWL parade float proposal was introduced by Mrs. Press, and immediately gained support from members.

"It is unthinkable," Mrs. Press said, "that the nation's foremost desert resort should be without representation in this magnificent festival."

A committee headed by Paul Carlson, with Muriel Fulton, Graham Dexter, Roy Randolph John Haskell and Mildred Jackson, was appointed to take immediate action on this project.

SPEAKING IN FAVOR of the float and resolution were Don Cameron, Mike Jekyll, Lew Levy, Haskell, Mildred Potter, John Berne and Culver Nichols. Vice President Ernie Dunleive presided at the meeting.

O'Donnell Golf Club was willed to the city by the late Tom O'Donnell, under condition that it be leased to a group of friends for a 99-year period for golf course use. It is a semi-private nine-hole course at the present time.

Community TV To File Tax Suit For Subscribers

Palm Springs Community Television today announced plans to attempt to recover through legal action all payments by its clients of federal excise taxes.

Frank J. Allen, general manager of the corporation, in a letter to subscribers to the cable television, said today that a recent decision by the United States Court of Appeals rules that community TV antenna systems are "not wire and equipment services" and therefore the tax which has been charged is not properly assessable.

LEGAL COUNSEL for PSCTC has advised that this decision makes it advisable that claims for refunds be filed with the federal government, and this will be done on behalf of the subscribers when they authorize the corporation to do so.

An authorization form to be signed by the subscriber is enclosed with the letter of explanation sent out by the company this afternoon.

ALLEN ESTIMATED the total amount to be eligible for refund at approximately $50,000, with a person who has been with the company since the service was started four years ago to receive about $40.

All of the refund, less actual costs, will go to the subscribers and PSCTC will assume all expenses necessary to file the claim if it is not allowed, Allen said.

He urged subscribers to sign the form sent them, and return it as soon as possible.

Nixon Makes Hit With Moroccans

Mixes With Crowd During Five Mile Tour at Rabat

RABAT, Morocco — Vice President Richard M. Nixon plunged into welcoming crowds at the start of a goodwill tour today with a handshaking, head-patting routine that had them cheering in the streets.

Nixon and his party, including his wife, Pat, and a group of newsmen, landed at colorfully decorated Sale Airfield outside Rabat in two U. S. Military Air Transport Service DC-8B planes. It was the first stop of a three-week tour aimed at countering Communist advances in Africa.

CROWN PRINCE Moulay Hassan, Cabinet officials, government dignitaries and the diplomatic corps greeted the Nixons.

After the customary courtesies, Nixon was given the traditional Moslem welcoming fare of goat's milk and dates. Mrs. Nixon received two huge floral pieces. Observers said Nixon gulped slightly as three robed servants filed down the line, carrying the food.

BUT THE VICE president accepted the hospitality, then headed into the heart of this ancient city. Twice during the five-mile trip into downtown Rabat, Nixon scrambled out of his black convertible and shouldered his way through police guard into the welcoming crowds.

Dark-robed Moslem men, barefoot children and veiled women clustered around him, grinning, laughing and reaching to touch him.

EACH TIME, the crowds quickly engulfed the vice president. But he stood his ground in the press of bodies, shaking outstretched hands and patting children's heads.

The crowds loved it. It was the same personal touch Nixon used so effectively on his Asian tour in 1953.

AT SULTAN MOHAMED Ben Youssef's palace the "scarlet-and-gold uniformed "Black Guard" snapped to attention as Nixon walked in.

The Sultan rose and greeted Nixon and waved to him a red and gold chair directly at his right. This was a singular honor. The place at the Sultan's right is reserved for royalty and his guests usually are seated forward on his right-hand side, half-facing him.

Bonanza Asks City Support In Application

Outlines Program Of Two or More Flights Daily

Making a strong bid for support in the desert area, Bonanza Airlines yesterday urged civic leaders to back its application to supply year-round feeder service to Palm Springs.

William J. Mitchell, Bonanza vice president in charge of traffic and sales, met with Chamber of Commerce executives, city officials, businessmen and travel authorities and gained a healthy measure of approval for Bonanza's proposed flight plans for the resort city.

MITCHELL, WHOSE company is competing with three major airlines for a Palm Springs schedule permit, outlined a program calling for two or more daily flights that would supply Palm Springs with a link to the transcontinental air center of Phoenix.

"It's purely a matter of whether it is better to provide the community with multiple daily service linking travelers with several continental airlines, or a one-stop operation connecting with only one major airline," Mitchell said.

HE EXPLAINED that his company's short-haul schedule would connect the city to virtually all coast-to-coast air traffic at the Phoenix terminal.

Mitchell claimed that United Airlines, also seeking a Palm Springs permit from the Civil Aeronautics Board, would service the city only from November through April on a one-stop daily basis.

Such a schedule would mean only a comparatively slender stream of travelers would move into, or pass through, the city. Mitchell bolstered his argument with the announcement that Bonanza has ordered new turbo-prop transports that will go into service in early 1958.

Ike Complains Of Cough, Wants To 'Get Away'

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower was still complaining about his cough today.

He told John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, that he would like to "get away for a couple of days and get rid of this thing."

Council Worries About City Hall Construction

"If any contractor tried to be slower on a building, they couldn't be slower than they are now. I never saw anything so slow."

Councilman Jerry Sanborn made this statement concerning the construction of the new Palm Springs City Hall, after council protested the manner in which the contractors paneled the conference room in the new building.

COUNCILMAN LEONARD Wolf said that the paneling had been fastened to the walls with nails, and that "the nail holes will show up like a sore thumb."

Construction of the city hall was delayed by the steel strike for approximately 30 days, but since the first of the year the occupancy has been set ahead at least twice.

City Manager R. W. Peterson has written the contractors asking for "a firm date" that the city administration can use as expected occupancy of the new building.

New High School Science Building Ready for Use

With all construction virtually completed, the new high school science building and Cahuilla School classrooms will be occupied by students Monday.

Occupancy of the science building and two classrooms was approved last night by the Palm Springs Board of Education.

Architect Don Wexler told the board the units require only light finishing touches, including addition of some hardware, before they are entirely completed.

IN OTHER SCHOOL construction, the board approved a change order of $4,032 requested by Architect Stewart Williams for the high school utility project.

Williams explained that only a relatively small amount, about $75, is required for construction alterations. The remainder is earmarked for purchase of transformers from the California Electric Power Company.

THE PURCHASE, Williams said, makes the school power plant independent and brings the power facility under the complete ownership of the school district.

The plant services the new junior high school buildings as well as the high school.

IN OTHER ACTION last night, the board heard reports from Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, supervisor of cafeterias, and Ted Hubbard, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

Mrs. Anderson was complimented by the board for the general excellence of the school cafeteria lunch programs. She requested additional storage space for staple food items and noted that efficiency of cafeteria personnel has reached new high and that there is little employee turnover.

Lessees of Indian Land to Discuss Moving Buildings

Riverside County Chief Building Inspector Charles G. Bixel will keynote a meeting of Indian Land Lessees Wednesday night at the Frances Stevens school auditorium.

George A. Prosser, chairman of the Indian Land Owners group, requested that all persons who rent from home or building owners who live outside this community to notify their landlords of the meeting.

The meeting starts at 8 p.m. A circular has been distributed to Lessees on the Indian Lands in Palm Springs which cries of "mass evacuation by lessees or stay and fight for long-term leases."

U.N. Told Decision This Afternoon

World Leaders Welcome Move By Government

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Israel today announced plans for "full and prompt" withdrawal of its forces from the Gaza and Aqaba strips with the understanding that the U.N. Emergency Force would be sent into the areas and the waterway kept open to ships of all countries.

Israeli Foreign Minister Mrs. Golda Meir announced Israel's decision in a statement to the General Assembly.

SHE LEANED HEAVILY on U.S. support expressed for Israel's policy in American-Israeli discussions in Washington during the past two weeks and upon policies enunciated by President Eisenhower.

In agreeing to withdraw from the Gaza Strip, Mrs. Meir repeated Israel's contention that the disputed land finger must not again be used for Egyptian military activities against Israeli territory.

IF GAZA REVERTS to its status as an Egyptian base for raids on Israel, she said, "Israel would reserve its freedom to act to defend its rights."

Mrs. Meir proposed immediate meetings between Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada, commander of UNEF, and the chief of staff of Israel's Army to arrange for the U.N. forces to take over the Gaza and Aqaba strips.

"WE HAVE REPEATEDLY stated," she said, "that Israel has no interest in the strip of land overlooking the western coast of the Gulf of Aqaba. Our sole purpose has been to ensure that, on the withdrawal of Israel forces, continued freedom of navigation will exist for Israel and international shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba and the Straits of Tiran . . ."

Earlier in the day, there were confident predictions that Israel would agree to withdraw from the disputed territory.

Standing Room Only Audience Jams Hearing

HOLLYWOOD — A standing room only crowd jam-packed a state Senate hearing room today to hear the final session of a three-day inquiry into "private eyes," bill collectors and expose - type magazine operations.

Revelation of the existence of the films was brought out in testimony Thursday by handsome investigator Fred Otash that he had dated the actress for seven months prior to her marriage last May to Anthony Steel.

NEW YORK UP — Stocks advanced in all sections today and just about wiped out losses suffered earlier in the week. Oils, aircrafts, steels, copers and motors were strong spots in the industrial section.

WASHINGTON UP — A Portland pinball operator, Stanley G. Terry, today flatly denied testimony that he paid $10,000 to a West Coast teamster boss to buy his way into the union and break its pinball monopoly.

WORK ON THE DESERT Hot Springs park was started this week with the pouring of four slabs for tables, benches and shelters at the park site between Hacienda and East and West Arroyo. Next to be installed are restroom facilities and about 150 palm trees. Dedication of the park is awaiting a plaque to be installed on a large rock in the area. Future appropriations will enable the board to have a tennis court, horse shoe court, shuffleboard and children's playground facilities. Board members include Herb Ecclestone, president; Bud Krotter; Helen Young, secretary; Edna Helvey; and Betty Lukowski. (Larson Photo).

Live in a sun country and your chances of passing out of the picture from heart disease or cancer is lessened.

This provocative theory, coupled with the startling statement that heart disease is caused by an infection, follows more than a five year intensive study by Dr. J. E. Bittner of Yakima, Wash., who, with his wife is vacationing at El Poco Lodge.

Into this consuming study on the part of Dr. Bittner entered checks of bioclimatology, solar radiation, weather maps of this nation, charts showing the rise and fall of cancer and heart disease during the four seasons of the year all of which was precipitated when the physician, now retired from practice, was asked to assist in finding the cause of death from heart failure of nursing calves.

DR. BITTNER bulwarks his opinion with volumes of statistical records from state bureaus across the nation and with records obtained from the U. S. Health Service.

His charts indicate that heart impairment and the incidence of cancer follows closely the pattern set by both ailments in states where the sun was blotted out by inclement weather.

But in spite of the doctor's intensive study of climate and its relationship to both of these diseases, he tempered his findings with the following statement:

"TO ESTABLISH final convincing proof that these diseases are caused by virus will require that hurdles of finance and popular cooperation be surmounted. Finance for statistical research and public relations, public cooperation to the extent that hundreds of thousands become interested in anti-virus precautions."

Going back to the early beginning of Bittner's interest which eventually led to a startling picture of solar rays and the lessening of heart and cancer conditions, is the story the death rate among the nursing calves.

First it was found that one of the surrounding ranches had calves dying from the same cause — heart impairment. Research finally focused attention on the hay the mother cows were eating. A serum was made, and when injected into the veins of animals the final termination was death within a few hours.

THEN THIS STARTLING discovery was made: That the heart conditions in calf deaths was caused by an infective agent. Two equal amounts of toxic hay were used. One of these had been left overnight under a household type of germicidal lamp. Both samples were processed in exactly the same manner. The virus filtrate from the unirradiated hay was lethal to two rabbits. The same dosage of irradiated filtrate was not toxic. Continued experiments along the same line drew the conclusion that "We were now better satisfied that the causative agent was virus," declared the doctor. "Then," he continued, "using clues provided by these experiments, we then hypothesized the same source as a cause of heart disease in man. A heart disease virus recovered from plant life points a finger of suspicion at all raw vegetables and uncooked food eaten by man. Since we do not know the cause of this disease, any suspects may be considered guilty until proven innocent."

"IT IS MOST unscientific to rationalize that an infective agent which causes heart deaths in experimental animals would do the same in man. Search for further evidence of course, is mandatory." Delving into bioclimatology of heart disease and cancer has necessitated some bold assumptions

SUN COUNTRY, that's the place to live in if you, and you certainly do not, desire to die from a fatal heart attack or cancer. This is the provocative theory advanced by Dr. J. E. Bittner, pictured above with his wife at El Poco Lodge here. Retired from active practice as a surgeon, the doctor is seeking further investigation of this theory which, in his opinion after five years of intensive study, is that heart disease is an infective disease caused by a virus as is cancer in such states that do not have an abundance of sunshine. (Desert Sun Photo).

In applying it to a new concept, says the doctor. "It is exhilarating business, this venturing into uncharted medical fields. We have tried to maintain contact with reality by staying close to the authentic data provided through the Bureau of Vital Statistics and the United States Weather Bureau."

THE DOCTOR continued in the following analysis:

"We were not previously acquainted with the fact that heart disease and cancer have very high geographic variations in incidence. The two diseases occur together geographically to a remarkable degree. The close correlations between heart disease and cancer in geographic distribution were made apparent by study of weather. The most incredible result of this line of investigation is finding that, to the best of our knowledge, it has never been reported in medical literature — I refer to the correlation of heart disease, cancer and sunshine."

THE DOCTOR'S studies found in statistics gathered from U. S. Bureau of Vital Statistics and the Weather Bureau show that the states with the highest number of cloudy days have the highest death rates from heart disease and cancer and conversely that the areas with the most sunshine have the lowest death rates.

The doctor in his written brochure concludes with the following observations to be factual:

"CANCER AND HEART death rates are in geographic correlation. Degree of solar radiation and heart death rates are in correlation. The degree of solar radiation and cancer rates are in correlation. The high correlation between these degenerative diseases remains after both the age and the solar radiation factors are eliminated. Heart deaths are correlated to seasonal variations in solar radiation."

"And finally in the opinion of the writer (Dr. Bittner) a heart virus, which is acutely vulnerable to all types of germicidal radiation is carried to human victims in milk and milk products. Other foods are also suspected."

"WHEN THESE observations have been confirmed, energetic research, with radiation equipment now available, will quickly provide methods of prevention as well as a new treatment for virus diseases. Until that time preventive procedures are dependent on sanitation and heat. These two when applied will provide the means by which the danger of virus on human food may be lessened."

Until all of this is accomplished, the writer feels that to be on the safe side to guard against heart disease or cancer live in Palm Springs, and the sun in the summertime is really intense.

Explorer Troop 118, Cub Pack 80 Win Contest

Palm Springs Boy Scout — Explorer Troop 118 and Cub Pack 80 were declared winners of the annual window display contest sponsored by the Riverside B'nai B'rith, it was announced today by Dent Reed of Corona, Riverside County Council special events chairman.

Some 34 units throughout the county entered the contest which is annually held as a part of Boy Scout Week activities.

The two local district winners will be presented with plaques from the B'nai B'rith, and a council-wide winner will be selected.

Certificates and participation ribbons will be awarded to all units participating in the contest at the District Roundtable and District Committee meetings.

Parking Meter Revenge Taken

NORRISTOWN Pa. (AP) — R. P. Newton of Oil City, Pa., had his revenge on a penny parking meter which did not give him extra time for the extra coins he deposited.

"I preceded a meter-reading police officer down Main Street and deposited 27 pennies in meters gone red — thus cheating the borough of $27 in fines, but saving 27 motorists the inconvenience of appearing at City Hall to pay $1 fines," Newton said.

Woman's Club Desert Carnival To Be Saturday

Desert Hot Springs Women's club sponsored Desert Carnival plans are completed for the gala all-day event to take place Saturday, March 2, at the Veterans hall.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gussie Young, club members Betty Lukomski, Rose Smith, Frances McGee, Maggi Bister, Etta Goldsmith, Stella Fuson, Gladys Klocke and Jessie Taylor are busy with the food and booths for the affair.

MRS. McGEE is in charge of the music for the dance in the evening from 8 to 12 p. m. Admission for teenagers is 25 cents and for the adults 50 cents.

Teenagers and adults alike may wear costumes, Mrs. Young reports.

During the day, there will be no admission charge but booths, games and food will be plentiful, as well as prizes to be given away.

THE WOMEN'S CLUB French dinner at the T-Cross-K Ranch was a huge success, according to chief chef Ruth Meadows.

The all French cuisine was skillfully handled by all the assistant chefs and five members husbands dressed as French waiters handled the serving.

Mother of Roy Davis Dies at Loma Linda

Funeral services for Mrs. Walter Davis, for 30 years a resident of Yucaipa, were held yesterday from the Baptist Church in Yucaipa.

A frequent visitor to the Village, Mrs. Davis died at Loma Linda hospital following an illness of two months.

A native of Kansas, she is survived by her husband, Walter Davis of Yucaipa, and two sons, Ralph Davis of Beaumont and Roy Davis of Palm Springs.

Dr. James Blackstone of the Palm Springs Community Church and Rev. Walter Olson of Chicago, officiated.

Interment was in Montecito Memorial Park.

Schedule for 1957-58 Budget Planning Established by County Supervisors

A schedule for preparation of the 1957-58 county budget was recommended this week by Administrative Officer Clay Begole and approved by the supervisors who instructed county counsel to prepare a resolution to make it official. It was outlined as follows:

March 18, personnel director's report on his salary survey.

April 1, begin salary hearings with county officers and department heads. Begole suggested that concurrently with the salary hearings, personnel requests for the county officers and department heads be considered and a preliminary salary budget for 1957-58 approved.

April 8, auditor to have ready forms for itemized estimates of anticipated revenues and expenditures of county departments which must be filled out and filed with the auditor on or before April 30.

May 27 or sooner, adoption of salary ordinance resulting from salary hearings.

June 3, hearings on preliminary budget to commence.

Aug. 1, copies of preliminary budget to be available.

Aug. 12, hearings on final budget to commence.

AUG. 22 OR sooner final budget must be adopted.

Aug. 30 or sooner county and district tax rate to be fixed.

"The provision for adoption of the salary ordinance in ample time so that department heads will know what amounts to budget for salaries will allow intelligent preparation of department budgets," commented Supervisor Paul Anderson. "This is the usual procedure in other counties."

In previous years in this county department heads have been at a loss to know what to plan on for salaries as any changes have been discussed and determined at the preliminary budget hearings after their preliminary budgets have been prepared. They have had to guess at salary allocations.

Human Genetics Discussed By Local Students on TV

Human genetics was the topic of discussion by eight freshman general science students and their instructor from Palm Springs High School when they appeared on the KCOP-Television program "Who Knows This," Thursday, from 3 to 3:30 p.m.

Participants went before the camera in two groups. The first group was Jojo Rosin, Susan Rolapp, Frank Ripley and Bob Fey, and the second group Erik Williams, Judy Dineen, Bruce Kaplan and Mary Lindenstein. Robert E.

Bourquin, Jr., general science instructor, directed the questions.

THE QUIZ-TYPE program covered questions dealing with some of the important phases of human genetics which are taught in high school general science. A genetic checkerboard, charts, and a blackboard were used by the students in answering some of the more difficult questions.

Arnold Pike, director of public relations for the California Teachers' Association introduced the students, Bourquin, and Dr. Wallace Muelder, superintendent of schools. Pike, who hosts the program, also directed some questions to the student panel.

KCCP, CHANNEL 13, donates this time as a public service to the C.T.A. each week. The program rotates among the high schools in the Southern California area.

Carolyn Gould and Larry Nelson, scheduled to appear on the show, were unable to do so because of illness. Alternates were Pat Kerzin, Sanford Gold and Carole Fortin.

Transportation to Los Angeles was furnished by private cars driven by Mrs. Frank Ripley, Dr. Muelder and Bourquin.

Idyllwild Asks New Speed Law

County supervisors referred to the road department and traffic committee a letter received this week from the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce asking for assistance to curb speeding in the mountain resort area.

"Speeding in the Village has become very serious," declared the Chamber of Commerce.

They asked for 25 miles-per-hour signs to be located from 300 to 400 yards north of Forest Lumber Company, and at Dr. Schultz' office west of the Village; and 35 miles-per-hour signs at Singingwood Motel north of the Village and at the Lions Club sign south-west of town, and also at Pine Cove from just north of the summit to about 100 yards below Skyline Cafe.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Sickbed of Labor

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Things are rough all over these days for the Labor movement; partly it's the vermin on the body, but partly it's the nature of the critter itself.

Senator McClellan's Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field is going after the chiselers and cheaters who have attached the selves to certain phases of trade unionism.

So far, so good, with the McClellan probe. It has brought about the citation for contempt of Congress of four Labor officials and the sizzling-on-the-hot-spot of several more. But I wouldn't want to bet that the long-term benefits in this clean-up will be very substantial.

THIS TIME NEXT year somebody is going to point out that the McClellan committee was stacked 5 to 3 against Labor. Look at the committee members. The chairman is from Arkansas, a Southern State with a right-to-work law. The other Southern member, Ervin of North Carolina, is from a right-to-work State. So are two of the Republican members, Goldwater of Arizona and Mundt of South Dakota. Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, another Republican, is from a State with an even stronger anti-union law. No matter how factually this committee operates, there will be Laborite cries of "Smear!" This is the kind of publicity from which martyrs are made.

BUT LABOR'S TROUBLES are much more than skin deep, and the current happenings inside the Steelworkers' Union will prove it. The Steelworkers' president and candidate for reelection is David J. McDonald, who succeeded to the title at the death of the well-loved Phil Murray. As such things go in union politics, the great leaders, like old-fashioned kings, nearly always die in office.

Benevolent despotism rather than democracy is the rule.

McDonald was expected six months ago to have no opposition, unless it was merely token. Six weeks ago he was expected to win at least 8 to 1 over the upstart candidacy of James Rehrig, whom the rank-and-filers nominated as a protest against a dues hike. Today, with the ballots still coming in, McDonald's lead is down to 2 to 1 and is diminishing. Meanwhile, by way of comparison, McDonald's running-mate on the ticket and candidate for secretary-treasurer, I. W. Abel, is winning by 12 to 1.

WHAT'S BEHIND this revolution of the Steelworkers' for their own leadership? You can find, as I've been doing, insiders who will talk if you don't spell out their names. It's a shocking thing, but one of the charges against the McDonald Administration is implication of religious discrimination in top staff positions.

Another don't-mention-my-name item on the feud list is that Joe Murray, the dead leader's son, is tolerated only in an inferior post on the staff. A third reason for the anti-McDonald revolt is the can't-prove-it knowledge that the Los Angeles Convention last September was rigged in order to get the dues raised from $2 to $5. There are charges that persons who weren't authorized delegates were allowed to vote, and that the local leaders were enticed to support the dues-raising measure by promises of kick-back funds.

THE OUST-MCDONALD fight came into the open when he used steam-roller methods to make Howard Hague, district director from Pittsburgh, a union vice president. This effort brought William Maloney, a Buffalo district director, into the race against Hague. Maloney was supported by Mike Walsh of Boston who led the fight in New England against the McDonald forces.

High-handedness was charged against McDonald in the national election last fall when he attempted and failed to deliver the Steelworkers' vote for Adlai Stevenson. There are tales in circulation about the tongue-lashing which Mayor David Lawrence, whose Democratic boss of Pittsburgh, dealt out to David McDonald, whose union failed to carry Allegheny County.

AND MOST RECENTLY, there are widely-published tales of the AFL-CIO Convention in Miami Beach where McDonald, in $200 suits, lived in a $140-a-day suite in the Americana Hotel, protected by a bodyguard from the Pittsburgh police force, courtesy of the Mayor.

Steelworkers' spokesmen are saying now that, even if he wins by a reduced margin, McDonald's power and prestige are gone. His enemies have already scored a moral victory. Headquarters hangers-on, who know when a leader is doomed, are already looking around for better tenancy.

AMERICAN WORKERS have not lost their reasons for joining unions, nor their right to organize for bargaining purposes. But the nature of the Labor movement, as it grew up under the Wagner Act is sick, maybe to its death. The union members have seen for themselves how little democracy there is in their choice of leaders, how much crookedness and partisanship there are in the handling of their welfare funds, how much waste and extravagance go on at the top level of the union hierarchies. No Congressional committee is needed to point out what has happened in these fields.

Things are bad for the Labor movement, but there ought to be this warning posted: "Non-Labor Persons Keep Out." Interference at this time by union-busters is about the only thing that can prevent Labor from cleaning its own house.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Sands Given Screen Test

HOLLYWOOD—Tommy Sands, 20-year-old rock 'n' roll singer who created a stir on Kraft Theatre's "The Singin' Idol," tested for a featured role in "Marjorie Morningstar" at Warner Bros.

David Niven and Charles Boyer decided she'd be just right for their fall television project and Janie Powell said yes, she'd love to do it and signed her name on the dotted line. Loretta Young got the nod from the Radio and TV Women of Southern California for their annual Ceni Award and will pick it up at the gala in the Beverly Hills Hotel next Saturday. Dale Evans and Eleanor Powell are the previous winners of the citation, awarded to the year's most outstanding figure whose activities extend beyond her own participation in the entertainment media.

DIRECTOR-to-actress talk: "In the time it took me to teach you how to play that scene I coulda taught Lassie how to play Camille!"

Mercedes McCambridge tells me she'll settle down to write a book about real life characters she knows in Chicago just as soon as she finishes her "Wire Service" stints next month. . . . Bob Hope, besieged by Canadian National Exposition officials in Toronto to star at their annual two-week hoopla starting Aug. 23, told the boys he'll be happy to do it for $125,000 plus 50 per cent of anything over the previous record boxoffice intake, which is $487,000. Please, Robert, it HURTS!

Rapid Robert goes to Paris to make a movie ("Trouble in Paris") this spring so he's really had to put on the speed in lining up guest stars for his final two televisions. Signed thus far are Natalie Wood, Sonny James, Janis Paige, Dizzy Dean, George Jessel, Shelley Winters and Cary Middlecoff.

DESI ARNAZ can't make up his mind what to do about that six-year-old hit show of his and his wife's, "I Love Lucy," next season. "Shall we keep going?" asks Desi. "Or shall we quit while we're ahead. How long can a hit show remain a hit?"

Johnny Carson and 20th Century-Fox Hour have their heads together about combining their talents for "The Cheese Stands Alone," once earmarked for Jackie Gleason but nixed by that fabulous fat man. Opening night at the Cocoanut Grove, Peggy King walked on stage into the spotlight, looked around in surprise at the crowded room smiled wryly and said: "I suppose a lot of you are left over from Harry Belafonte's audience."

20TH-FOX TORE up Richard Egan's contract and gave him a new one that permits him to do TV. . . . James Mason, up for a television next season, asked 20th to let him out of his producer-director-star pact which stipulated absolutely no TV. The movie studio obliged. . . . CBS-TV, mightily impressed (as were a lot of people!) with Mickey Rooney's razzle-dazzle performance in "The Comedian" on Playhouse 90, offered The Mick a long-term acting ticket.

That beautiful Playhouse 90 production of the Helen Keller story, "The Miracle Worker," may be teamed a second time to keep the network's viewers happy. . . . International News Service has agreed to do research and give technical advice for next season's "Wire Service" series about press association newsmen. . . . Says Robert Q. Lewis: "Marriage is a lottery in which everybody's trying to get even."

IF ANYONE IS entitled to indulge in a good case of March jitters this year, that someone is Nancy Kelly. Miss Kelly, nominated for an Emmy as the result of her thesping in "The Pilot" on Studio One and for an Oscar because of her work in "The Bad Seed" for Warner Bros., will need nerves of steel to carry her through Emmy Awards Night, March 16, and Oscar Night, March 27.

Oddity: "Richard III," whose star, Sir Laurence Olivier, has been nominated for an Oscar for his performance in that picture, was telecast by NBC-TV in the film BEFORE it was released to theatres throughout the U.S. . . . Mrs. Dean Martin on the subject of the Martin & Lewis bust-up: "I'm not rooting for Jerry's failure—I'm rooting for Dean's success!" Good girl.

Quotes from the News

(By UNITED PRESS)

LONDON — Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan telling NATO Commander Gen. Lauris Norstad that Britain must make "substantial reductions" in its defense efforts:

"Our strength to the rest of our allies depends as much upon the strength and resilience of our economy as upon anything else. Insurance is a fine thing, but over-insurance is debilitating."

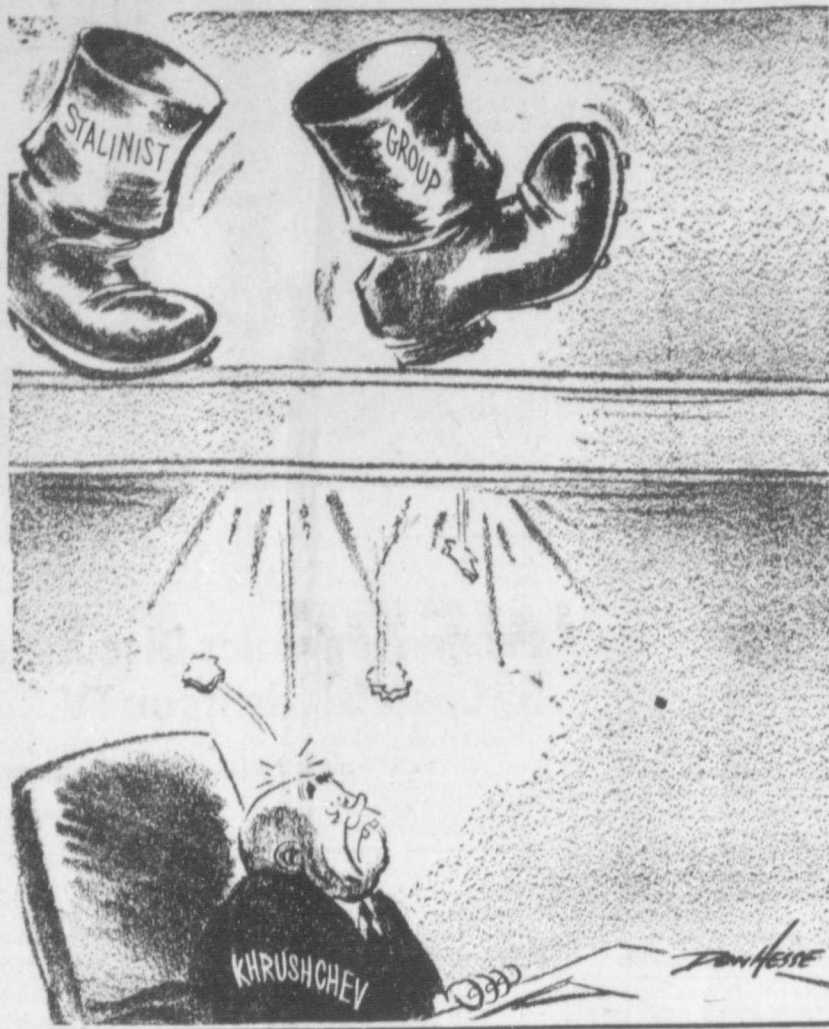

PRINCETON, Ind. — Judge A. Dale Eby, denouncing the person who shot the four-month-old baby of a non-striking worker during a strike:

"I hardly believe a human being — and by a human being I mean a person with a soul — would shoot into a building where an infant is. He wouldn't be a human being — he would be a rat."

WASHINGTON—Former President Truman suggesting that Congress should "spell out in some degree guides" for the exercise of the authority it will probably grant the President under the Middle East Doctrine:

"Far from being a hindrance to the administration, in the present state of confusion, such a recommendation should help fill the void of policy."

Boots—Boots—Marching Up and Down Again

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

It's March, the month
We aid Red Cross,
Remember that
And come across.

Sure, there are a lot of drives. Seems like somebody is always wanting something. But the Red Cross is different.

Last year, with nature on a tear in many sections of the country—floods, hurricanes, other disasters—was a costly one for the American Red Cross. They spent millions in relief for disaster areas.

Most people do not think of that. But disaster can hit anywhere. And when it does, the victims DO think of the Red Cross which is there to aid them.

OF COURSE, it is too late to do anything about it now. But a telephone call the other day brought to mind that something is missing here this year.

There are no baseball games to watch while sitting lazy in the sun. This telephone call was from a visitor here. He wanted to know if I had a schedule of exhibition games the baseballers, now in training in the southwest, are playing.

Wanted to know when they are playing at Phoenix or Tucson.

THIS IS THE FIRST year in six or seven, the crack of bat meeting ball is not being heard at the Polo Grounds. No pop-eyed kids sitting around watching the athletes limber up muscles for the season to come, no shucking of peanuts and guzzling of pop and/or.

Those spring training games provided entertainment for a lot of people. But, like the chap who called me the other day, you have to travel to get it.

DOWN IN FLORIDA where 12 of the 16 Major League teams are preparing for the 1957 season, they know the value of training camps. Not only do the tourists have something extra to see but every day in newspapers all over the nation the names of their communities appear in print as a flock of sports writers follow the teams and write of their every activity.

The other four Major League teams are in Arizona which is also profiting publicity-wise.

LEAVE IT to the Friendly Southern Pacific. Service not only to the public but to all of their railroad family.

Wednesday the engineer on the San Joaquin Daylight let go with a powerful sneeze. His false teeth flew out of the window of the Diesel. A five-minute search by the crew was without luck and the train completed its scheduled run.

But the FSP, realizing the dire emergency, sent a section crew to comb the railbed ballast. The dentures were found and rode in state on another train, back to their owner. He's again on a solid diet.

So if you should lose your teeth on the FSP, don't worry.

Notice in my compendium of special days, weeks and months that the week of March 17 to 23 is both National Salesman's Week and also National Wildlife Week. Guess they haven't changed even if they don't call them drummers any more.

INEZ ROBB:

Yes, Virginia

Yes, Virginia, it is true that I was in England less than a month ago. Yes, Virginia, it is likewise true that in almost two weeks in the tight little isle I never heard one single, solitary whisper indicating that Her Majesty and the Duke of Edinburgh were p-f-f-f-ing, feuding or at odds.

No, Virginia, my reportorial face is not red as a beet, because if such news was or is "common gossip" in England, I guess my British friends aren't common gossips.

OH, YES, I HEARD plenty of other gossip about the royal family, but none indicating that the royal marital bark had piled up on the shoals. No one can be in England more than 10 minutes without hearing all about life and times in Buckingham Palace, Windsor Castle, Sandringham or wherever the royal family happens to be at the moment.

There are no washboard weepers on the British radio or television for the simple reason that the royal family is the glittering, all-absorbing soap opera of the nation. Let Bonnie Prince Charlie refuse to eat his breakfast cereal and by 10 a.m. all the English are proudly chuckling because the heir to the throne is behaving just like the average, high-spirited eight-year old.

FOR 20 YEARS I have marveled at the grapevine, faster than the speed of light, that brings to the British public all the intimate details of palace life.

For instance, last month I heard that Princess Anne is a handful, a chip off her Aunt Margaret, her Great Uncle David (Duke of Windsor) and a throwback, mayhap, to that spirited monarch, Edward VII, who is her great-great grandfather.

There was a bit of head-shaking over some of Princess Margaret's companions and more and more alarmed speculation that she may never marry. The British Wants their pretty Princesses to marry, but there are fewer and fewer eligible young men every year.

In this column I am stepping across the threshold into a highly controversial situation.

In doing so I go humbly and strictly objective. Some may say that this is an unusual attitude for your reporter to assume but be that as it may, I can be humble and I have always tried to be thoroughly objective.

This glass house into which I am stepping, highly vulnerable to oral brickbats, deals with the great number of campaigns under way in this resort community with one overlapping the other.

HAVE BEEN STOPPED innumerable times by our good citizens who throw their hands up in the air and exclaim: "When is it going to stop?" The Palm Springs Community Chest drive for $50,000 is lagging pitifully to a point where some of the agencies dependent upon the Chest for financial support may have to curtail services. This drive is positively local with all of the money collected used locally.

On top of this drive we have the Heart Fund campaign; the Red Cross solicitation, the Cancer Fund drive, and others that have gone on before.

THE QUESTION asked of me and which, no doubt, is atopic of discussion among people in the Palm Springs resort area is: "Why can't all of these drives take place under one campaign and the money distributed according to the needs of each welfare agency?"

No one is denying that these campaigns—the Red Cross, the Community Chest or the Heart Fund are not worthy causes. Also, it must be remembered that unlike any other city these campaigns take place during the winter months 'cause there are more people in town.

NEVERTHELESS, Riverside combined all of these campaigns into one and called it the United Appeal or some such name. Harry Harper, one-time manager of our chamber of commerce instituted this in Riverside and it has been successful for a good number of years now.

What is being asked now: Is it

EARL WILSON:

Out in the West

NEW YORK — Mike and Liz Taylor are off on a three-week rest in Palm Springs following Mike's debut as an actor in the filming of Phil Silvers' Sgt. Bilko TV show here. Mike was very capable in his scenes despite heckling from his wife. "Never mind, Mike," Phil told him. "You did in two hours what it would take Elizabeth Taylor two weeks to do. You're great, but boy, ARE YOU HAMMY!"

After James McKinley Bryant dropped $60,000 gambling in Las Vegas, his ex-wife, who still likes him, scrawled a check for the amount and said, "You should take it a little easy, dear." . . . Valda Zalina, Latvian legit actress, who was Eva Marie Saint's stand-in in "Hatful of Rain," just became stand-in for Deborah Kerr in "Love Story."

BUT IT SEEMS to me that it would take a man with a leonine and suicidal disregard for danger to cavort off the reservation when his wife is in command of one of the greatest detective agencies in the world, Scotland Yard.

So I am prepared to go on believing, until there is more concrete evidence than "common gossip," that the royal difficulties—if any—are no more serious than those that afflict the dramatic personae of any other soap opera.

THE BEST SHOTS among celebrities, we're told, are Gen. Curtis Le May and Andy Devine, who, when they shoot ducks in Arkansas, count only the heads . . . On meeting young Senator Kennedy, George DeWitt said, "I'm so happy to know any brother-in-law of Peter Lawford's."

Mel Allen was telling at the Stage Barber Shop of his plans for going South with the New York Yankees and Lou the Barber said, "I sure do miss baseball in the winter time. Mel replied, 'I used to feel that way, too—then I got them to play me on a 12-month basis.'"

"THE MOST EFFICIENT" answering service," claims Woody Allen, "is still your wife." . . . Speaking of barbers, Sal (The Barber) Maglie, who grew a beard for a TV commercial, shaved it off. On the filmed commercial he was supposed to say, "If this shaver can shave this beard, it can shave anybody's beard." In his pride about his own prowess, he fluffed on his first try and said, "I can shave anybody's beard."

B'way dialog reported by Ted Berkelman: "I went into a department store and they sure gave me the red carpet treatment."

"Yeah. What did you buy?" "A red carpet."

A VISITING TEXAN told Howard L. Chan he couldn't understand all the excitement about Charles Van Doren making a little pin money. . . . Back together again and here to go onto the Comco show, the Andrews Sisters are giving a cocktail party to celebrate their reunion. We plan to go early and talk to them real quick before they bust up again.

Looking for trouble, huh? Bill Solida, maitre d' of the fancy possible for the leaders of these various drives for funds to get together and work out a plan where one concerted campaign may take place in order to take care of the needs of the various organizations seeking money here.

WE MUST REMEMBER this too—that the Palm Springs Community Chest campaign is one to which may be applied that oldie: "That charity begins at home." Also it must be remembered that the Red Cross is still a mighty and worthy cause as is the money to continue research in order to wipe out death from heart disease and cancer.

It is believed that if our City Fathers or City Manager Robert W. Peterson sat down with the leaders of these various groups come next Winter season, a well defined plan may be worked out for the benefit of all.

RIGHT NOT IT is too late to do anything. We must contribute to these worthy causes. But some thing must be done, if at all possible, to lump these campaigns into one. If it works elsewhere it can work here too!

All we have done here is nothing more than to report the irritation expressed by so many people in our community. I'm going to stay as neutral as is possible.

By the way, Ruby, who has been missing from The Dunes, is at the bedside of his ailing mother in Detroit, Mich. She is in critical condition with little hope that she will survive her illness, I am informed.

Ukie Sherin is back in the Celebrity Room of the Rossmore Hotel. If you want to meet an interesting person, who seemingly has been everywhere of interest in this world, meet up with Bruce Thomas. He sells among other things Tappan stoves to a good friend of mine by the name of Sol Bernstein, who is co-owner of the Model Plumbing Supply Company.

And if you want to live long continue to bask in the sun right here in Palm Springs.

Bask? I haven't had a sun bath in this town in 12 years. But the moonshine — well, that's something else again.

schmancy Barbary Room, says anybody leaving a dime tip at a lunch counter for a coffee and doughnut is overtopping. "Lunch-counter operators make sufficient profit to pay countermen good salaries," says he, adding that the big violators of the 10-to-15 per cent custom are secretaries. . . . Pittsburgh's Little Jackie Heller becomes host and m.c. Mar. 6 at the Americana Hotel in Miami Beach. First show he m.c.'s will star Patti Page and Harvey Star.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Ed Sullivan and Walter Winchell arrived from LA on the same plane, with Mrs. S. teasing Ed about who'd get top billing in a crash. . . .

Jerry Lewis' Palace dressing room was invaded by a character who grabbed Jerry's arm till ejected. . . . LaVerne Andrews of the singin' sisters, was told to get her pooh out of the Warwick, so she left, too. . . . Phyllis cafe owner Jack Lynch died. . . . Is the Lana Turner-Lex Barker bustup over a brunette model (Jeanne C.)? . . . Sheri Windsor was called for another role on the "Sgt. Bilko" show.

INGRID BERGMAN's been ailing ever since her New York trip. . . . Julie Styne says he has "hundreds" of suggestions for the "Bells Are Ringing" road company leads; no one's chosen yet. . . . Duo: Virginia Warren (Chief Justice Warren's dtr.) at the Left Bank with Dick Cowell.

George Raft says he's getting pressure to soft-pedal his Sat. Eve. Post memoirs. . . . Ray Bolger's TV'er will switch from afternoon to night this spring. . . . A cafe owner wandered through his main dining room barefoot and in a bathrobe. . . . TV zany Ernie Kovacs wrote a book, and Doubleday'll publish it. . . . The British asked the White House's opinion on turning Cyprus over to NATO or the UN.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . Some folks never travel far because they plan their course by lassitude and lounge. — H. C. Diefenbach.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Allen and DeWood insist George Washington was elected president the hard way—without telling a lie.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "It's amazing," sighed a guy, "how many things my wife manages to do without till she sees 'em on sale."

Red Buttons wrote from Tokyo he has insomnia, so his aide, Allan Walker, wired, "Have solution—am sending recording of 'Japanese Sandman.'" That's earl, brother.

Tourists and visitors to Palm Springs have easy access to the Library, and it is easy to find on the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz. If you are here for just a day you can still have a library card. Deposit a dollar, fill out a card. That's all. When your holiday is over present your receipt and your dollar will be refunded. Or you may leave it for another year; or you may say thank you by turning it over to the book fund.

We have a beautiful patio, with comfortable chairs, in which to read if you are too relaxed to carry books back to your hotel. If you want something we don't have, we will get it for you. We are all very nice, and smile and are polite no matter what ridiculous books you require.

THERE IS EVEN "The Branch" at 1146 South Palm Canyon Drive where the parking is easy and the copies of best sellers profuse. Here are some of the shiny new books that arrived this week:

1. Dorothy L. Sayers, UNNATURAL DEATH... (The Dawson Pedigree)... a Lord Peter Wimsey mystery. This is the third of the series that Harper and Brothers is reissuing chronologically, and has all the suspense, careful plotting, the local color and first-rate detection that the readers who like the whimsical ways of Lord Peter have admired, and that new readers often find delightful.

2. LOWER CALIFORNIA GUIDE-BOOK, by Gerhard and

Gulick, a much needed addition to our much patronized shelf of books on Mexico. This is a travel book in the practical, traditional style. From the northern border towns to the tropical regions of the southern tip, the authors give adequate information on the land, its history, the missions, the people, their fiestas and way of life. There are chapters on money, customs, hunting and fishing regulations, maps and routes.

3. Jessamyn West's TO SEE THE DREAM grows out of the Journal Miss West kept while she was spending part of her time at home in Napa, California, and part of it in Hollywood as a script writer and technical advisor to William Wyler, who was converting her book THE FRIENDLY PERSUASION into a movie. It is more than this, however. It introduces us to her friends and relations, to movie people. It celebrates the natural world and expresses the author's personal philosophy. It does all of this and much more in the most delightful possible manner.

4. THE SEVEN CAVES by Carleton S. Coon is anthropology for the layman. It is the story of the hunt for seven caves scattered across the globe from Tangier to Afghanistan. Coon takes us along on the arduous, exasperating, exciting expeditions. There are few moments as dramatic as the moment of a great archaeological "find."

Dr. Coon, now at the University of Pennsylvania, writes for the layman in the same easy style as that of his previous THE STORY OF MAN.

TO SIMPLIFY THINGS for their clients, as so many people find it difficult to visualize a finished home from plans, The Riverside Builders, Inc., have constructed a model house at 68-039 Highway 111, directly across from the Sunair Drive-in. This house will be used as a model and sales office and will be open every evening till 8:30.

They are also building a different model on Date Palm Drive about half way between Ramon Road and Highway 111. Riverside Builders also will retain its office at 326 South Indian Avenue in Palm Springs. (Desert Sun Photo).

Security Sets Earning Record

Security Title Insurance Company earnings in 1956 were highest in the company's history. William Brellant, chairman, reported at the February meeting of the board of directors. Net income was $1,335,239, equal to $2.33 a share compared to $1,216,397, equal to $2.06 a share for 1955, based on the shares outstanding after the recent 20 per cent stock dividend. Brellant said "The prospect for 1957 is particularly favorable as net income from operations, gross income and number of orders were higher in January 1957 than in any similar month in the company's history."

Circle J Motel Sold to Stone

The "Circle J" apartment motel, owned by Ladine Young of Rancho Mirage, was sold last week to George Stone of Palm Springs. The deal was negotiated through the real estate office of Eva M. Stone.

Mrs. Stone also reports the sale of ten acres located southeast of Desert Hot Springs to Mr. C. Ottati of New York City and the sale of a parcel of acreage to Louis Damasio of San Francisco.

Year 'Round Beauty, Color Of Quince Makes It Popular

The year 'round beauty and color of the Flowering Quince and its showy spring flowers make it a popular choice for California gardens.

Modern Flowering Quince are fine improvements over the old varieties, and they didn't just happen, says the California Association of Nurserymen.

Many years ago a California nurseryman discovered some pink seedlings blooming among his shipment of scarlet Flowering Quinces from Japan. This nurseryman, the late W. B. Clarke of San Jose, then spent 25 years in careful breeding and selection to attain today's high quality Flowering Quince and these Quince range in color from white, through all shades of pink, combinations of pink and white, and all shades of red.

BESIDES THEIR great beauty of color, Flowering Quince bear large clusters of flowers opening in succession and blooming two and sometimes three times in the Spring. Another happy feature of the Quince is that it starts blooming right in the teeth of winter, when cut flowers are scarce in the garden.

The seasonal changes reflected on the Quince add to this deciduous plant's attractiveness. After the spring bloom, fragrant yellow fruit appear on the tree; in autumn the leaves change to yellow, and in winter the bare, leafless branches present interesting patterns in knarled and twisted silhouettes.

FLOWERING QUINCE blossoms, illustrated here, are among the most beautiful heralds of spring. Varieties of the Flowering Quince bloom in practically all shades of white, pink, red and pink and white combinations and there are usually two or even three distinct crops of blooms each spring.

FLOWERING QUINCE should be planted in the shrubby border among evergreen plants. They will grow from 10 to 25 feet—either as shrubs or small trees or they can be trained as hedges. Flowering Quince will grow well throughout the state and they are not particular about soil conditions.

Recent introductions include Afterglow, opening white, then shading to soft rose; Cameo, double apricot pink; Red Chief, a double, ruffled deep red; and Roxana Foster, deep shell pink in the center shading to carmine rose at the margin.

Gardener's Check List

1. All hardy annuals can be planted now for early spring bloom. Plant Pansies, Violas, Calendula, Baby Primrose, Stocks and Snaps.

2. Hurry to plant all bare root plants such as Roses and Fruit Trees. Best results are obtained by planting prior to March 1. 3. This is the most effective time to spray for peach leaf curl. 4. Aphid are appearing on the new growth of many plants. Spray them before they do damage. 5. Clear the garden of snails by broadcasting bug pellets.

Ransom Realty Variance Okehed

A variance has been granted the Ransom Realty Company of Palm Springs for a temporary real estate office in an R-3 residential zone at 70-072 Wonder Palms Road near the Tamarisk Country Club in the Cathedral City-Palm Desert area. County Planning Director Tyler Sues informed the board of supervisors this week.

The supervisors told Edward G.

Marshall of Palm Desert who appeared as an interested party that no further action will be taken unless an appeal is filed by the applicant or some other property owner within 300 feet of the exterior boundaries of the property within 10 days from Monday, Feb. 25, the date on which the planning commission report was received.

Desert Hot Springs

By DONI LARSEN

With every nook and cranny filled with our many visitors over the weekend, Desert Hot Springs enjoyed one of the busiest of holidays during our winter season. From all reports, visitors were taken into many private homes after motels were filled to capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brandenberg, minister of the Nazarene church in Long Beach and their son, Chuck, spent last Tuesday at the Al Johnson home. It was their first visit here and they love the peacefulness and quiet of the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Graben attended the Date Festival in Indio.

We are sure that all residents are happy to know that our old friends in DHS, Jules and Anna Nathanson are now back with us.

Houseguests at the home of Mrs. Grace Harmon over this past weekend were Mrs. Marjorie Holm from San Fernando and Nan Killgore, from Westwood Village. The ladies attended the Date Festival at Indio while here.

Simon and Karen Thompson entertained guests over the weekend. Lillie and Irland Ericson, owners of the Health Baths in Hollywood enjoyed their stay at the Thompson home and dinner with them at Erikson's Restaurant. Also guests of the Thompsons were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bulask from Beverly Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt from Filer, Idaho, were guests this past week at the Lura Apts. on Fifth Street. Elsie Denean Hunt is the author of the recently released book "The Ship of Peace," which tells of the Hunt's travels over the western states in their covered wagon trailer.

Carol Booth
Honored at Baby
Shower Monday

Mrs. Carol Booth was honored by her fellow Rotary-Anns at a baby shower Monday night at the home of Mrs. Irene Seales, Rotary-Anns president, 66-984 Cahulla street, Desert Hot Springs.

Mrs. Jim Stewart was co-hostess to an evening of fun and games and delightful refreshments served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Booth received many gifts and a large joint gift by the Rotary-Anns of a new bathrobe for her little baby boy, Garry Norris Booth.

Those present were Mmes. Lillian Jackson, Enola Hulbert, Linda George, Gladys Klocke, Dora Benton, Helen Leonard, Gladys Kean, Rae Horton, Marie Cornelius and Blanche Pedersen, aunt of the honoree, and Grace Pedersen her mother. Eight Rotary-Anns were unable to attend.

BOSTON (AP)—Five men who appeared in court here on drunkenness charges had a combined record of 614 arrests. One had been arrested 233 times.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES of the Desert Hot Springs Jewish Community Group attracted a huge crowd of local residents as well as out-of-town visitors last Sunday afternoon. The honor of turning the first ground was given to Mrs. Rose Klein of Nashville, Tenn., above. Mrs. Klein is sister of Aaron C. Galvin of DHS and the largest single donor to the building fund of the Community Group. Over $5,000 was reported donated during the afternoon ceremonies and at the dinner which followed Sunday evening in the Veterans Hall, reports Samuel Axelrod, president. A capacity crowd filled the Veterans Hall for the chicken dinner cooked and served by the Sisterhood of the Jewish Group under the supervision of Mrs. Edna Gross, president. During the evening music was provided by Burton Smith and his trio from Hollywood. Smith is the nephew of Mrs. Anna B. Miller of the Jewish Group. Miss Masha Solomon, lyric soprano from Los Angeles, entertained the diners with her renditions of both American and Israeli ballads and folksongs. (Walker Larsen Photo).

Five Candidates
File for Water District Board

At the close of Monday, the last filing day, petitions for the three directors seats on the County Water District had been filed.

Five petitions including one for Herb Ecclestone, president of the board, were filed. The other four men filing were: Dr. James Compton, Jim Harris, Frank Cozad and Aaron Galvin.

Two board members not seeking re-election are Frank Kibbey and Stone Wright, Jr.

Election of the three directors will take place on March 26. Polling place is the County Water District office on First Street, east of Palm Drive, and the polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. on March 26.

Art Tea Planned
Sunday to Honor
Three Artists

On Sunday, March 3 there will be an Art Tea at the Addington Gallery in Desert Hot Springs, honoring three artists from the high desert, Evelyn Hutchinson, Vera Martin and Irene Zimmers, who will exhibit etchings and watercolors through the month.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Tea from 2 to 4:30, and also to enjoy the exhibit which will be on display daily, through March 31, from 2 to 5. There is no charge at any time.

The only stockaded post, between the Alleghenies and the Mississippi River, still standing as originally built, is Fort Wilkin's in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

NORTH PALM SPRINGS

By ORPHA GEIER

At the well attended meeting of North Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening, president T. D. Pendergast offered a site for a recreation hall to be used for community purposes, such as scout work, youth center, fire meetings and social benefits as well as Chamber of Commerce use.

The offer will be considered and action taken on it at the next regular meeting which will be March 19. It was also reported that assessment for street lighting for North Palm Springs should be completed next month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McClellan of Altadena solved the problem of finding lodging for the weekend by buying a trailer from Al Eaton and will be spending weekends at the Trámvue Ranch. McClellan has an insurance office in Altadena and Mrs. McClellan teaches school in Duarte.

Bill and Joyce Marks of Long Beach were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hill. Joyce and Mrs. Hill are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dever will be leaving March 1 for a vacation in Miami, Fla. On the way they plan to stop over for the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rightmire, Terry and Robin of Carson City, Nev., are now living in North Palm Springs, having bought property on Indian Avenue. Mr. Rightmire is an electrician and is engaged at present in wiring homes in Fun Valley, as well as appliance installation and repair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Henson of Rosedale, Indiana have purchased property in North Palm Springs and will build a home here this fall. Mr. Henson is a general contractor.

George and Maxine Fleming of Redondo Beach were out last weekend to call on Ralph and Elsi-nore Helmick. George and Ralph are both employed by Air Research.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Patterson, Miss Ann Patterson and Miss Evelyn Dye, all of Orange were Saturday visitors in No. Palm Springs.

There are about 466,000 oil wells in the United States located in 27 states.

Ann Diederichs who has made her home with Orpha Geier here for the past year left by train Saturday for Aberdeen, S. D., where she will visit her parents before going on to Dickinson, N. D., to spend the next several months at the home of her sister and family.

New residents of North Palm Springs are Kenneth and Ruby Gunn, Kenneth, Jr., and Johnnie of Denver, Colo. Mr. Gunn is with R. P. M. Builders of Sable Homes in Cathedral City, Riverside and Indio.

Music Publisher Vacations Here, Plans Business

Jack Mills, president of New York's Mills Music, Inc., publisher, is currently enjoying a week-long vacation at Palm Springs' El Mirador Hotel.

Mills, who is winding up a cross-country junket to Hollywood, is accompanied by his wife, and Dr. and Mrs. Addie Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Somach, of Long Island, N.Y.

The group will leave here Monday for Los Angeles, where Mills plans business conferences with his agents and leading personalities of radio, television, motion pictures and music.

Mills' company has published such song hits as "Star Dust," "Stormy Weather," "Ain't Misbehavin'," and Teresa Brewer's current recording hit, "I'm Drowning My Sorrows."

Milkie Attends State Meeting

George Michael Milkie, O.D., of Palm Springs, who is on the Contact Lens committee in his local optometric society, was among several local optometrists who took part in a series of important discussions here at the 52nd annual convention of the California Optometric Association.

More than 600 delegates heard reports on television viewing, school screening programs, motorist vision, effects of smog on vision, recent developments in contact lenses, safety, and saw many displays of new equipment and materials.

SNOW-CAPPED PEAKS of the San Jacintos are a background contrast in this view from Desert Braemar, the newly-completed luxury co-operative on Highway 111 between Tamarisk and Thunderbird Country Clubs. In the spacious main courtyard seen here, the large expanse of velvety green lawn surrounds the planting of ocotilla, Joshua, palms, and Spanish dagger that bring the rugged texture of the desert into the landscaping. In addition to the 100 Braemar units now completed, another 90 will be built this year.

Dottie Clark, a recent shuffleboard champion, had to defeat three men to acquire that honor.

John and Naomi Martin entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Ford and Betty Kingman and son, Dennis, of Mountain View, over the weekend.

Lyla Plumb had as her guest over the weekend Sybil Thayer Dorsa of La Crescenta. She is very well known in Little Theater Circles, and radio and television, as a character actress.

GUESTS OF ROY and Dena McFarland over the weekend were their son's family, the Jack McFarlands and son, David. Dena returned to their home with them.

Robert and Ruth Ingram entertained Jean and Mildred Townsen from Glendale for one week. Marie Kennedy enjoyed her son, Kenneth and his wife, Pearl and children over the weekend.

R. C. and Rosalie Griffith entertained their daughter and son-in-law William and Vella Bartsch of Pleasanton, Calif. over the weekend. Also paying a brief visit were Bill and Betty Christiansen and Roy Woofter from Torrance.

CLAIR AND SANDRA Christensen entertained their daughter and son-in-law Jack and Mitzi Frances of Oakland over the weekend. Sandra returned with them for a two weeks visit.

Lafe and Nellie DeWitt of Tacoma, Wash., had as their guests Mrs. Charles Prouty of Los Angeles, and Lee and Mario Peck of Burbank for the weekend.

Joe and Julie Bashard are anxiously waiting for the arrival of their 32-foot Trailerama.

Randall and Leola Fischer are returning to their farm in Walla Walla, Wash., after having spent the winter at Ramon.

Georgia Wyatt recently celebrated her birthday.

FRED GIBSON and Oscar Hill are both recovering from recent illnesses, and received cards and gifts from the following shuffleboard players: R. G. Horton, L. Gooducti, O. W. Grew, Van Gregory, Ray E. Jones, R. C. Jackson, Anton Kuharic, Ben Purcell, Harold McKesson, Stan Walker, Hank Priester, Joe Bosard, John Martin, Naomi Martin, George and Marie Brummer, Howard A. and Dorothy Dudley, Ralph and Gwen Maupin, Frances Gibson, Phyllis and Steve Stephenson, Bruce and Thelma Steele, Ernie and Billy Dutcher.

Also Amin Corner Stan McClelland, Earl Walker, Clyde and Blanche Stoll, L. E. Coffman, Ray Hull, Ray E. Prescott, C. O. Wyatt, E. A. and M. L. Hadden, Ralph and Dorothy Burgess, George and Celia Nissen, Jack Frost, M. E. Tena, Philip Gugic, Dot Clark, Jane Bullinger, Hal and Jan Barnett, Sam Hays, Lenore Hays, L. Sutton, George Tucker Smith, C. W. Christiansen Bob Nixon, Jim Hill, John Romeo, Lee Hammer and F. M. Finkile.

THE SATURDAY night dance was highlighted by the 34th wedding anniversary of Bill and Jess Lane. The beautifully decorated cake was a gift to them from Laura Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hull entertained with a complete day of festivities and cocktails for her brother and his wife, George and Clara Purser of Granada Hills. Dinner was served on the patio.

Beckleys Park

The Mexican Caravan has returned with great enthusiasm for traveling in Mexico.

About two months ago a contingent of six trailers, composed of former Kent, Wash., folks embarked on a trip to the West coast, via Nogales. From Beckleys, there were the Oliver Brothers, C. J. and C. T. with their wives; Asal and Bada Strain; Ab and Fern Ellington and three trailers from Phoenix.

They reported fine roads all the way to Acapulco, plenty of gasoline and excellent canned foods for sale in every city.

THE MAYS HAVE SOLD their Aljoa travel trailer, and have purchased the Newhouse's more commodious Kenskill. The Newhouses in turn, are looking for a larger more permanent trailer to leave in the park.

Smiley Burnette and family stopped in for a few days after completing an engagement in Florida, and will leave soon to do a show in Springfield, Ill.

Very old trailerites, but young in years, the Frank Flowers of Encino, Calif., who have lived in Beckleys for ten years, are here after a trip to Hawaii.

THE WHYTOCKS, Morgans, Johnsons, Ona Carlisle, and Ruth Becket, enjoyed "Brunch" at the Ranch Club Sunday afternoon.

Lions Hear Talk By Mrs. Dillon on Bond Election

Mrs. John Dill was the speaker before Palm Springs Lions Club and their guests Thursday at the Chi Chi Starlite Room outlining the purposes and the costs of the proposed new sewer system, at stake at the polls in a bond election March 19.

Following her presentation of the needs and costs of the system, she conducted a question and answer period.

Frank Hamerslag, city engineer was present to assist her in the question session. James Cooper was chairman for the day and introduced the speaker.

Gasoline contains nearly three times the energy of TNT, six times that of nitroglycerine and more than seven and half times as much as dynamite.

Your Congressman Reports

By D. S. SAUND

During the past week I have been enjoying my first visit home since taking office on Jan. 3.

It has been a very pleasant and reassuring experience. I have met and shaken hands with hundreds of persons, principally in Riverside County. From the manner of their greeting and the questions they have asked, I feel highly encouraged. Apparently the people at home have been reading my newsletters and are informed of the actions taken concerning the many problems which face people of Riverside and Imperial Counties.

I HAD THE privilege Thursday noon of addressing a joint meeting of the Soroptimist and Business and Professional Women's Club of the Pass area in Banning where I explained the reasons for my full support of the President in his formulation of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine. I supported it in all stages—in deliberations in the Foreign Affairs Committee and during an exciting debate on the Floor of the House.

Being possessed of data classified as confidential in the interest of national security, I am firmly convinced in the wisdom of giving notice to Soviet Russia in unmistakable language that any overt aggression on her part against any country in the Middle East will be met with force by the United States.

I FURTHER clarified my position in regards to the Arab-Israeli dispute. The United States has friendly relations towards both the Arab countries and the State of Israel. All we want is peace in that area in order that the people there may progress politically and economically. To accomplish that, the Arab nations must recognize that Israel is there to stay.

Political recognition of Israel has no meaning if we permit her

The Navajo Indians, whose population sank to fewer than 10,000 after their defeat by Kit Carson in 1863, are today the largest tribe in America, with an estimated population of 75,000. They live on the country's largest Indian reservation in New Mexico and Arizona.

Donna Clarke Married to Robert Miller

In a double ring ceremony at the Palm Springs Community Church on February 22, Donna Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sorum of 401 Merito Place, was married to Robert Miller. Rev. McLean of the Palm Desert church officiated at the ceremony.

White flowers and candles decorated the church for the informal wedding. The bride wore a ballerina length gown of beige lace and carried a wedding bouquet of white tulips. She was attended by her sister Judy, and her brother Raymond Sorum Jr. acted as best man.

Around 75 wedding guests attended the reception which was held in the church parlors following the wedding, with cake and punch served.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of La Crescenta, is a student at Glendale Junior College.

The newlyweds will make their home in La Crescenta following a honeymoon trip.

Beta Sigma Phi Entertains at Gay Hobo Party

The Polo clubhouse was a gay scene Tuesday evening, when Palm Springs Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority staged a Hobo party for members and guests.

Lending a "bum's touch" to the clubhouse, were pseudo bushes, a clothesline strung with old clothes. Tables were covered with newspapers and decorated with banded knapsacks, containing table service.

Slumgullion stew, green salad, rolls and hard apples with cookies, were served to the guests, who were all in tramp attire.

One of the guests, Audrey Kruger, assisted Sue MacKenzie and Byrna Johnson in a zany skit, which was followed by an imitation bingo game, called "Tramp." Hostesses were Byrna Johnson, Millie Herbert, Jane Dill, Bernie Bottorff, Marge Hodgkinson and Sue MacKenzie.

Guests were Nancy Callahan, Betty Strebe, Rusty Sipherd, Lolita Waller, Robin Arnold and Kay Starchuk.

Gives Luncheon For Houseguest From Seattle

Mrs. Mabel Saylor Lewis, winter resident, entertained at a luncheon Tuesday in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Al Lassers of Seattle, Mrs. Lassers is the former Anne Radoff who was a book reviewer in Beverly Hills.

After the luncheon Mrs. Lassers presented an original play based on new material she gathered recently in Majorca concerning the Chopin-Sand interlude on that romantic island.

Among the out of town guests was Mrs. Elizabeth Nathanson, of Los Angeles, popular author and owner of the Carlton hotel in the Village.

TEEN AGE MODELS like pretty Beverly Lewis of Pasadena, will model swimsuits in the style show at the Doll House Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. William Adrian will commentate the show.

Style Show Sunday at Doll House

William Adrian nationally known collegiate models director of Hollywood and New York will present a spring and summer fashion show at the Doll House in Palm Springs on Sunday of this week at 3 p.m.

Adrian girls will promenade the latest in morning, afternoon and beach wear from leading California designers.

Adrian girls are noted for their fresh outdoor, natural look and have been featured on over 250 national magazine covers since 1945. Six have become Rose Queens and one a Miss America. Three of the current Rose Court were Princesses and at least one and perhaps two of these beauties will appear Sunday. They are Diane Wagner, Frida Nilsen and Lynn McCaffrey of Pasadena.

In 1954 a four page spread in the August 24th issue of Look magazine featured Adrian collegiate models in a feature highlighted and photographed completely in Palm Springs. This was a complete Adrian story taken of the girls having fun in Palm Springs.

Peggy Jacobson, current cover girl on the national magazine Pageant will model also at the Doll House. William Adrian will commentate the revue.

Serving as best man for the groom was Theodore Vatz of Chicago and Mrs. Vatz acted as matron of honor. The honeymoon destination has not been disclosed but upon their return the newlyweds will reside in the Sunset Towers, where Mr. Lautman has an apartment.

Flagship Mariners To Have Potluck

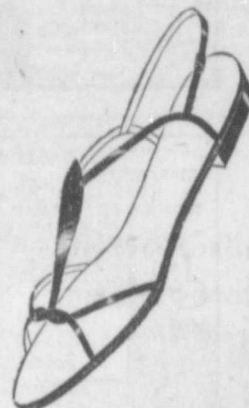

Flagship Mariners will hold a potluck dinner Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the social hall of the Community Church, with members and friends of the Church invited.

Those attending are asked to bring table service. Coffee, rolls and butter will be provided.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ehret of 533 North Calle Rolph, had as weekend visitors Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rienders from North Hollywood, who are interested in buying business property here.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (U.P.) — Joe Louis, whose fistic comeback was a fiasco, said today that Rocky Marciano could be the first man to regain the heavyweight championship of the world if he were to battle young Floyd Patterson "right now."

"Maybe it would be different by June, or later in the summer, but right now Marciano would be too strong and carry too much weight for Patterson," Louis reasoned. The memory of those merciless Marciano fists, which ended Joe's career in 1951 when they sent Louis crashing to the canvas unconscious, are still with the big man who ranks as one of the ring's immortals.

"HE HURTS YOU" wherever he hits you," Louis asserted. "He'd have too much fire power for Patterson right now because, after all, he hasn't been out of action much longer than he would ordinarily have been if he was still fighting."

"Maybe by June or by summer time Patterson would have gained more experience or developed more," Louis analyzed. "But right now I'd have to pick Marciano." Looking back on his own career now that it is far beyond him, Louis rates his first bout with Billy Conn, in which he knocked out Conn in the 13th round in 1941, as his toughest fight.

"Billy had everything that night," Joe said slowly. "He was as sharp as a razor and at 174 pounds was in the best shape of his career."

THE SECOND CONN FIGHT, in which Joe knocked out reluctant Billy in the eighth round in 1946, brings a grimace to Joe's moon face.

"He was carrying too much weight at 182 pounds," Louis recalled. "That slowed him down."

Joe worries constantly over the $1 million in back taxes and penalties which he owes Uncle Sam. "They sound like telephone numbers," he said wistfully. "It's a terrible thing to have hanging over your head and I'd sure like to get even. One thing, sure, I won't ever feel right until I'm square."

Neves Set Down for Five Days at 'Anita

ARCADIA, Calif. (U.P.) — Jockey Ralph Neves, who had contracted to ride Prince Khaled in Saturday's $100,000 Santa Anita Derby, Thursday was suspended by the Santa Anita stewards for five days for careless riding on Duc De Fer Wednesday in the C. J. Fitzgerald Handicap.

Tebbets Sees 5-Club Race In National Loop this Year

Says Pirates And Cards to Be Up There

Bums, Braves, Reds Not Alone in Fight for 1957 Pennant

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
TAMPA, Fla. (U.P.) — Birdie Tebbets envisioned a five club race for the 1957 National League pennant today, putting the Pirates and the Cardinals in the contending group along with the Dodgers, Braves and his own Redlegs.

The plump, ruddy-faced Tebbets, starting his third season as manager of the Redlegs, is high on the chances of his own club, but predicted the race this coming season could go down right to the wire just as it did last year.

"They're all saying the Dodgers, Braves and my own team are the clubs to beat," the plain-spoken former star catcher observed. "But in my book, they're making a mistake by overlooking the Pirates and the Cardinals."

HE PREDICTED the addition of Del Ennis and pitchers Sam Jones and Jim Davis "will make a big difference in the Cardinals."

"I figure that if Stan Musial, Wally Moon, Ken Boyer and Wilmer Mizell come up with good years and those three new players help them as much as I think they will, St. Louis could be as tough as any club in the league," Tebbets said.

As for the Pirates, he likes their pitching. "Don't forget they had good pitching last year even with Vernon Law and Dick Hall was off form because of injuries. When you add them to Bob Friend, Ronnie Kline, Elroy Face, Nelson King and those other pitchers, the Pirates figure to have what it takes in that department."

AS FOR PITTSBURGH'S hitting, the Redlegs skipper pointed to Dale Long, Frank Thomas, Bill Virdon, Lee Walls and Bob Clement.

"There is nothing wrong with them with a bat in their hands," Tebbets added. "And this young catcher, Danny Kravitz, has power, too. He needed a little more polish last year so Bobby Bragan manager of the Pirates sent him down to the minors for more seasoning. But our scouts tell me he is ready now."

He figured it wouldn't take much for either his Redlegs, the Braves or Dodgers to take it all.

"Each of the three of us can point to players who had bad seasons last year and figure to do better," Tebbets reasoned.

Larsen Inks N.Y. Contract For $17,000

ST PETERSBURG, Fla. (U.P.) — Don Larsen, the World Series perfect game hero, apparently is somewhat less than perfect when it comes to negotiating for an extra big basket of that green folding stuff.

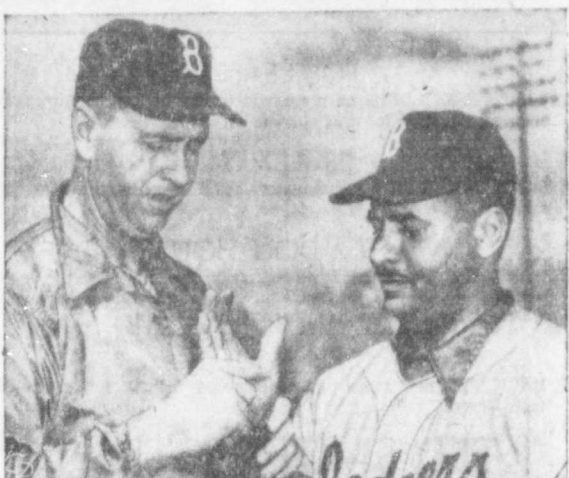

This was made clear Thursday when the 27-year-old pitcher who found immortality last Oct. 9 signed with the New York Yankees for $17,000 — about $10,000 less than he was demanding. Larsen made $12,500 in 1956.

Although he had only an 11-5 record during the American League season, Larsen insisted in January that he would get "about $27,500 or might wind up tending bar." This extravagant "threat" cut no ice, however, with General Manager George Weiss, who made it clear from the start that one perfect game hadn't erased the memory of an imperfect season.

Spring Sports on Schedule For Palm Springs Indians

By LINDSAY NEILSON

With spring in the air and basketball officially out of the picture, the Indians of Palm Springs High School are now devoting their time to the sports of the new season—tennis, swimming, track and baseball.

The Warrior netters are already well under way. Wednesday they came up with a clean sweep over the strong San Bernardino Citrus Belt League team. The girls tennis team, coached by Moya Henderson started their season with a win over the Gate City girls.

REDMEN SPIKESTERS were to compete yesterday in the annual Santa Ana Relays there but heavy rain in Orange county forced postponement of the event.

Their first league meeting will be two weeks hence when they take on Coachella, already touted to repeat as RCL track and field champs.

Eugene Prieto, Ken Chapin and Dale Johnson will undoubtedly

PALMER, MAYFIELD TIE IN BATON ROUGE GOLF

BATON ROUGE, La. (U.P.) — Two hot shooting, low scoring champions—Arnold Palmer and Shelley Mayfield—teed off today to battle out second round play in the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open Golf Tournament.

Palmer, second place money-maker on the winter tour and winner of the Houston Open, blasted his way into a first round tie late Thursday with Mayfield, defending Baton Rouge champion, by stroking in a four under par 68.

Mayfield tallied an early 68 lead which stood for several hours before Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., carded the tie.

Bill Nary, Wayne, Mich., and Manuel Dela Torre, Milwaukee, Wis., will attempt to break out of a third place tie today. Both trailed Palmer and Mayfield by one stroke, three under par 69 in the first round 18-hole event.

Professionals tied for fifth place are: Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B. C., Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., Gardner Dickinson, Panama City, Fla., Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Jimmy Demaret, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y. They turned in 70's for the 6,540-yard course.

Williams and Reese Ready For Big Year

Serve Notice They Aren't Ready for Rocking Chair Yet

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Ted Williams and Peewee Reese, a pair of 38-year old pros, made it clear today they won't be settling back in that old rocking chair for at least another season.

Big Ted, who smashed a dozen "homers" during the Boston Red Sox' batting drill Thursday, predicted he'll play at least 100 games this year and perhaps "start as many as 125." That game-total would insure Ted another crack at that fifth American League batting title he is so eager to win.

Williams played in 136 games last season and hit .345—only eight points behind Mickey Mantle's A.L.—leading figure.

REESE, STARTING HIS 15th active year with the Dodgers, said he has "no intentions" of relinquishing his shortstop job and added, "I can still move as well as some of the other shortstops on contending clubs."

The Washington Senators, meanwhile, suffered a setback when prize rookie outfielder Dan Doback left camp for military service. Doback had caught Manager Charley Dressen's eye in the Senators' first workout and the pilot thought he had come up with a real "sleeper."

On other fronts:
Bob Nieman, who hit .320 and drove in 68 runs last season, signed with the Baltimore Orioles for an estimated $25,000 and said he thought he and teammate Gus Triandos "can drive in 100 runs each this season if enough of our teammates get a base."

OUTFIELDER WES COVINGTON and first baseman Frank Torre signed with the Milwaukee Braves leaving only Lew Burdette, Ernie Johnson and Bill Bruton unsatisfied. Bruton is enroute from Milwaukee and believed ready to sign.

Ted Kluszewski delighted Manager Birdie Tebbets of the Cincinnati Redlegs when he weighed in at "only" 234 pounds for his first workout. Kluszewski favored his left hip during a light workout but said he "expected no serious trouble."

President Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants admitted he was "hopeful" of making a deal in the near future to replace catcher Bill Sarni, whose career was ended by a heart attack.

DEFEATED in a minor half-mile race in Melbourne, John Landy, who has run the mile faster than any other man who ever lived, announced, "I've had it." The three-minute, 58-second miler explained the statement was his official retirement announcement. (International)

ARCADIA, Calif. (U.P.) Jockey Johnny Longden set his sights today on 6,000 riding wins in his ageless turf career after having achieved his 5,000th victory Thursday at Santa Anita.

"I don't see why I can't go on for 6,000 wins," Longden said, "and I intend to keep on riding as long as I feel I can do justice to my mounts."

The 5,000th victory was notable chiefly as a milestone in the 47-year-old rider's career. Every time Longden has ridden a winner since last Sept. 3 he sets a record. It was on that day he surpassed the previous all-time riding mark of 4,870 winners held by Sir Gordon Richards of England.

But victory No. 5,000 was still the "big one" today for Longden as he awaited the presentation of a 116-year-old racing cup between the fourth and fifth races. Santa Anita racing director Carleton F. Burke was to make the presentation in a public ceremony.

"It was a relief to get it done," Longden said after he brought home Bente in the fourth race to surpass the magic number. He had been trying for that victory since Tuesday when he rode his 4,999th winner but it eluded him for 10 mounts.

Palazzola Wins Nod Over Artie Dixon
LOS ANGELES (U.P.) — Jimmy Palazzola, undefeated in his 22-bout professional career, said today he needed "a little more work" following his win over youthful Artie Dixon.

Palazzola, 164½, Anaheim, was awarded a unanimous decision over Dixon, 161, Los Angeles, in Thursday night's 10-round main event at Olympic Auditorium.

It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 10 p.m. EST.

Although Rosi is unranked among 135-pound contenders, the beldish belter from Italy is favored at 9-5 because of his punch over third-rated Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., the highest-ranked "cutie pie" in any division. Johnny has an unbeaten string of 13, marred by one draw.

PCC Parley on Cash Aid Opens

PORTLAND, Ore. (U.P.) — The Pacific Coast Conference opened a three-day meeting today to discuss financial help and scholastic requirements for its athletes.

Professor Emmett Moore of Washington State, president of the conference, said the PCC would try to spell out a series of principles accepted at the January meeting, and perhaps to draw up a code.

The principals were first drawn up by the President's Council, which passed them along to the PCC.

The principles called for financial aid to athletes based on need. They would allow an athlete to obtain employment and other financial aid up to the average costs of education at his particular school.

The principals were first drawn up by the President's Council, which passed them along to the PCC.

Bears Sure of Play in NCAA

By NEAL CORBETT
UNITED PRESS SPORTS WRITER

The University of California already has cinched the Pacific Coast Conference berth in the NCAA regional basketball playoffs at Corvallis — but tonight the Bears start their battle to go as champions.

They have the inside track in the run for the conference title. However, UCLA, Washington and Southern California still figure mathematically, and there's nothing those three would like better than to show up the Bears.

All three were banned from the playoffs by NCAA edict, but they would still get plenty of satisfaction out of seeing California go north as "only second best" in the conference.

DEFENDING CHAMPION UCLA gets first crack tonight and Saturday at Berkeley—and the Bruins are so close that a victory tonight would put them in first place.

The hopes of Washington and Southern California involve much higher mathematics, especially in the case of USC.

The Trojans could gain a four-way tie if: 1. They beat Oregon twice this weekend; 2. They downed UCLA Tuesday; 3. They scored a double win over California next week; 4. California and UCLA split their series; and 5. Washington State split with Washington next weekend.

AND THAT'S ABOUT as mathematical as you can get. Washington's chances are not quite that remote. If UCLA and Cal split, and Southern California defeats Cal and UCLA, the Huskies could grab the championship with a double win over Washington State next week.

This week's schedule, in addition to UCLA at California and Oregon at Southern California, finds Stanford at Idaho and Washington State at Oregon State. Washington is idle.

The PCC standings: California 11-1, UCLA 11-3, Washington 11-3, Southern California 7-4, Stanford 6-8, Washington State 4-8, Oregon State 3-9, Idaho 3-11, and Oregon 1-11.

Fireplace Holds Narrow Lead in Bowling League

Fireplace continued to hold a narrow one-game lead over Wheelettes in the Ladies League at the Palm Springs Bowling Academy after Thursday night's game.

Fireplace rolled the high team series with 2150 and also the high team game with 731.

Nona McCoy's 490 won the high individual series honor and Lee Orr rolled a 192 for high game.

Rating of the teams Friday morning was: Fireplace, 58-26; Wheelettes, 57-27; Hathaways, 51-33; DHS Rotary, 39-45; Viking Liquors, 33½-50½; Richard, the Mas-seur, 13½-70½.

Rosi Favored at 9 to 5 Tonight Over Gonsalves

NEW YORK (U.P.) — Lightweight contender Johnny Gonsalves, king of the "fancy Dancs," matches his speed and guile tonight against the stunning punches of Italian Paolo Rosi in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 10 p.m. EST.

Although Rosi is unranked among 135-pound contenders, the beldish belter from Italy is favored at 9-5 because of his punch over third-rated Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., the highest-ranked "cutie pie" in any division. Johnny has an unbeaten string of 13, marred by one draw.

HOW TRUE! Recall when you could have bought half of Palm Springs cheap? It's occurring right now again — under your nose. The desert is simply filling up. Here's the last of the low cost land in the Miracle Triangle. Every city utility available — So. Calif. Natural Gas, Public Utilities, City Water available, electric and phone lines to land — free. Surveyed, staked and graded roads. Palm Springs High School district buses. Back up out of Valley Winds and gorgeous views. Choice portions of this 1500 acre residential ranch. Owner must sell on account of tax problems on long low easy terms. Broker cooperation. DRIVE OUT Ramon Road across Freeway 99 to end of Ramon. Doyle, owner, Hidden Springs Ranch, Thousand Palms. Accent
THERE'S no limit to what some folks will do for their pets, and a Classified Ad in a London newspaper demonstrates it. The owner of a 14-month-old Boxer,
Mitzi, advertised for a dog-sitter with a Scottish accent. Seems his wife is Scotch, and the last time they left Mitzi with someone lacking a burr in her voice Mitzi chewed up 6 pillow slips, a satin bedspread and the kitchen lin-

Robert Handley To Give Museum Program Here

The Desert Museum's Guest Lecture program tomorrow evening in Frances Stevens School will bring Robert Handley back for a return engagement of his spectacular "Colorado River Country" presentation.

Handley is trained in the fields of forestry and wild-life management, has worked extensively for the Forest Service, the Fish and Wildlife Service and the National Park Service, and has devoted number of years to photographing the scenic beauties of the wilderness areas of the nation.

His program tomorrow night will begin in the high Rockies where the Colorado River has its headwaters, and will follow down the course of the river through the Grand Canyon, telling in pictures.

About 240,000 tons of cucumbers are used each year in the United States to make pickles.

words and music the story of the great River of the West.

The program begins at 8 p.m., doors open at 7:30, and the public is invited.

MADISON, Conn. (AP)—A teen-age club formed to curb juvenile delinquency suffered a jolt three days later when its president was arrested on charges of theft and vandalism.

Indio Trailer Park Approved

An M-3 permit for establishment and operation of a trailer park on a 10-acre property on the north side of 45th Avenue 330 feet west of Adams Street in the West Indio area, was granted by the county board of supervisors this week to Elbert Cantrell, Sr., of Los Angeles.

The planning commission had recommended that the permit be granted.

Village SP Spur To Be Abandoned

A notice from the Public Utilities Commission that it has received from the Southern Pacific Company notice of intention to abandon a spur track and platform near the Palm Springs depot effective March 20, 1957, was referred by the board of supervisors this week to county counsel.

Judicial Court Officers, Rice To Meet Mar. 8

"I want a meeting of the judges, marshals and constables of the county's various judicial districts, together with the sheriff and the members of this board, on March 8 at 1:30 p.m. here in the supervisorial chamber of the court house," Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain announced at this week session of the county board.

similar views and voted to hold the meeting as suggested by Chamberlain.

In a letter of information regarding outstanding warrants, apparently requested by Chamberlain, Sheriff Joe W. Rice stated that there are presently 5,500 outstanding warrants which will probably be unserved.

He said that to adequately cope with the situation he would need two additional men and one additional female employee as well as two additional cars for the two men. He said his office is presently operating on a day to day basis of from two to three cars short.
